

Are you ready?

DRC and RICV are recognizing National Disability Voting Rights Week by kicking off a series of online workshops to help voters with disabilities get “VOTE READY!”

People who assist voters with disabilities also can learn things to make them more effective as helpers and advocates.

“The right to vote is precious and almost sacred, and one of the most important blessings of our democracy. We must be vigilant in protecting that blessing.”

—Congressman John Lewis

FOUR WORKSHOPS

REGISTER

GET CONFIDENT: Thursday, SEPTEMBER 15, 10:00-11:30 a.m.

Learn how to vote based on your values so you can feel confident and good about your choices. Understand how your vote is important to the issues you care about.

REGISTER

GET INFORMED: Tuesday, SEPTEMBER 20, 10:00-11:30 a.m.

Learn about trusted resources to help you make informed choices on your ballot.

REGISTER

GET COUNTED: Thursday, SEPTEMBER 29, 10:00-11:30 a.m.

Learn how to make your voting plan so your vote will be counted.

REGISTER

GET INVOLVED: Tuesday, OCTOBER 4, 10:00-11:30 a.m.

Learn how to get more involved in supporting our democracy, such as by being an election worker or joining your local Voting Accessibility Advisory Committee.

Please send all questions and requests for reasonable accommodations to:
Rebecca Donabed, RICV Community Organizer
rdonabed@ricv.org or call 559-221-2330.
Requests for reasonable accommodations must be received five business days prior to each workshop.

